DEATH OF CAPT. RUSSELL.

Capt. Samuel W. Russell, formerly of Belle Plaine in this state, and a brother of M. C. Russell Esq., died in Texas on the 5th day of January, in his 45 year.
We served in the same regiment with Capt. Russell during the late "unpleasantness," and learned to admire his many good qualities and we deeply sympathize with his relatives in their irreparable loss. His death will indeed be sad news to his many late comrades in arms in this vicinity.

Death of Mrs. W. C. Dreidenhagen.

The sad intelligence of the death of this estimable lady was received in our village on Wednesday evening, and caused much sorrow. Laketown Steaks.

Henry Gordon, Esq. lost a very valuable horse, three months old, named "Jake," the native Pennsylvanian like the writer, "Minnesota can beat the world for good, very thick, solid ice."

Lake Auburn, "beautiful for situation," and noted as a very good fishing resort, has presented quite a lively appearance, for the past weeks, owing to the many persons and teams crossing, and then, later, returning. The Moravian Church, too, is the more easily reached by those living in the direction of Wagonia.

Fred Zaer's team of horses ran away for him, early on the morning of the 27th inst., as he was about leaving home for Chaska dashing over the open field, they sprang through the field-gate, completely demolishing it, and then galloped on at a break-neck rate, over a by-road, leading into the woods by the school house, with Fred in hot pursuit, who, after a long chase, and exceeding great trouble, finally captured them. Strangely enough, neither horses or wagon sustained any serious injury. The affair caused much excitement in the immediate neighborhood. It seems there was a bound calf in the wagon, which, becoming restless, made such a noise as to set the horses perfectly wild, and before they could be arrested, off they were, Fred's shouting &c. all to no purpose.

The police suppressed an attempted riot at Liverpool lately by promptly attacking 200 men who were marching toward Queen's dock; 4,500 more laborers joined the strike in Liverpool and Birkenhead, many of them through fear, and 1,500 more are expected to join. A February 4 dispatch from Palermo says the rumor of an outbreak of the plague at Olessa caused violent demonstrations there, which, however, were quieted by the announcement that the government had ordered quarantine of one week on all arrivals from the Black sea.

There were three runaway frightened teams in St. Paul, Minn., on the afternoon of Jan. 31st, one attended with probable fatal results. John Woodman was thrown violently to the pavement, striking his head, producing a frightful gash and concussion of the brain. There were but slight hopes of his recovery.

A Toronto telegram of February 5th, says the action of the British government in the question of scheduling American cattle is watched with interest. Should the decision be favorable to the States, the Canadian government will have to undo what they have done, in prohibiting for a space of three months the importation of American cattle into Canada, or their passage through any part of the Dominion. If this is not done, the effect will be to send all trade to United States ports during the quarantine period.

Mr. George C. Taft, of Washington market, New York, one of the leading cattle shippers to Europe, received a private dispatch from the agent of his firm, in which it was stated that the British government had agreed to an order for the importation of American cattle into Canada, or their passage through any part of the Dominion. If this is not done, the effect will be to send all trade to United States ports during the quarantine period.

The Northern Cane Growers Association, with delegates from Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, and other states met lately at St. Louis, and discussed the growth of cane and sugar in the West. Mr. Miller, of Minnesota, and pronounced it equal to the best New Orleans sugar, and worth in bulk cents per pound. Prof. Stewart, of Pennsylvania, gave a paper on the association about sugar making, not only from different kinds of cane, but corn stalks and beets, and exhibited sugar made from cane and corn stalks. If his new process can be made into sugar, any farmer can raise 4,000 pounds of sugar per acre from sugar and other canes. The papers read and discussions of them are very interesting and convey a good deal of valuable information touching the sugar industry of the West, and the association has arranged for the publication of the entire proceedings of the convention.

and, as might have been expected, mutual unhappiness was the result.

The newly married couple of the bright old days before Bertha had ever pierced the poor fellow's heart with her darkly-splendid glare, and when the terrible moths of her long, graceful ringlets—comparing those days to the present, with its scattered friends, its withered blossoms of hope, and its lowering presentiments of an evil hour yet to come—I was startled by a tap at the door.

"Come in!"

"My dear boy: Come in and see me. I am sick, frightened. Can you come immediately?"

"Tell her I will come, Joanna," I said to the girl, and began dressing myself to go out on the instant. A brisk walk of a half mile brought me to the quiet little house—half hotel, half boarding-house, where my old friend lived.

I found him lying on the sofa before the fire, in dressing gown, smoking, and looking ill—the gray lines of which made his face look quite ghastly. His sharpened features and the blue black crescent underneath his eyes told of a sleepless night; and his languid smile, as he arose and came forward to greet me, indicated the exhaustion that follows a mental storm.

"What's the matter now, old fellow?" I asked, with an assumption of gaiety.

"I'll tell you, I'm afraid. I have been thinking of you, and now comes the consequence."

"Well, I must tell you one, and you are the best man I know for a confidant; I had best give you the whole story. Sit down. There are clear on the mantel-piece."

THE SICK LIST.

If there is not an improvement shortly, in the sanitary condition of our small city, we will have to number it into wards. There is hardly a family but has one or two sick members on the invalid list. Since our last issue we have the following cases to note among the adults.

L. W. Noble was taken down last Saturday with Typhoid Pneumonia, but prompt medical care has already placed him out of danger.

John Dols, was also taken down on Friday, but is improving under good care.

Mrs. Jas. Dilley is now considered out of danger, although she has had a severe time.

Mr. Sebastian Hammer father of Ferdinand and Michael Hammer, has also been quite sick, but is improving at this writing.

John Ross and wife has also been quite sick with Pneumonia but are now rapidly improving.

The cases of sickness among children are so numerous that we do not attempt to enumerate them.

Important Local Decision.
Judge A. H. Young of the District Court of Hennepin County, has rendered a decision that the proceedings of the County Commissioners of Hennepin County are not proceedings which should be made public—in other words, we suppose decision to mean—that as to how any commissioner voted upon a matter submitted to them or the motions and proceedings in relation to such matters are not to be submitted to the public. If this is good law in Hennepin County it must be so, throughout the State, and would preclude the official publication of the doings of the board of County Commissioners. We should like to see the matter tested in our higher courts, as we very much doubt its judicial soundness, to say nothing of public policy.

"A stitch in time saves nine" is not more true in mending clothes, than in getting farm stock through the winter. An economical and sure help is Uncle Sam's Condition Powder, it restores the sick, strengthens the weak, improves the appetite, and will keep the stock in a thriving condition, for it supplies the valued qualities in grass. Sold by all Druggists.

MINNESOTA LEGISLATURE.

SENATE, February 21, 1898.

Senator McCrea made the usual report of standing committees relative to the Senate. The committee found nothing to report in the hospital proper at St. Peter. Of the Rochester asylum the committee report, the building, which was originally built for an insane asylum, is now used for a general purpose, and, together with the new addition built last year, is a most complete and modern.

NORWOOD FAIR.

We enjoyed the privilege of attending the regular Monthly Stock Fair at Norwood last Thursday, and were greatly surprised to find it such a success. We have often witnessed the fairs at Carver and Watertown, and can assure our Norwood friends that there is as well attended, in every particular, as either of the ones just mentioned. Norwood is surrounded by as fine an agricultural country as any town in the county, and has its progressive business men, and there exists no valid reason why it shouldn't become one of the chief cities of the county.

The several delegations to nominate a democrat to hold for County Commissioner at the Court House in Chaska on Saturday the 2nd of February, were called to order by Arnold Hoen, Chairman of the district committee.

The election on Lewis St., for the fire department, is completed; and we understand the good work will proceed.

We were graced with three arrivals Saturday, all our agents, and it wasn't a good day for "organs," either.

We notice farmers in town, from a great distance, with wheat. One man who sold elsewhere, for 75 cents got 70 here, after marketing. It only costs 2 cents per bushel to market it, and it brings about 15 cents more per bushel. The price makes and falls, regardless of other markets. It raised 5 cts. Friday, before ten o'clock.

A petition is being circulated (for signature), to be presented to the Legislature, for their consideration, before acting in a "bill" for the purpose of shouldering another "poor farm," on the Co. The prevailing opinion is, over this right, that the county has had enough "poor farm," and the bill will be uncompromisingly opposed. It is a scheme that originated with one or two individuals, for their own aggrandizement, and the interest of the county, was not consulted.

Spots of the county, for the county, may father another $5000 misadventure (for awhile), and then present it to some court for a song.

Men with all their endowments, in many things most foolish, he will give all he has for his life, but he is reckless and indifferent to his life. He will go to a place where he is in his purse, yet will die with a cough and cold, and in the end his misadventure, when such a sure remedy as Eliot's Daylight Liver Pills, will cure him. It is a remedy for all ailments, and is in use in the household of every family. It is a remedy for all ailments, and is in use in the household of every family.
